

ENNIS ARTISTS STUDIOS INITIATIVE

Ennis Artists Studios Initiative has been developed by the Clare Arts Office in response to the need for artists /arts organisations workspaces in Ennis.

Based in Tracklands, Tobartoascáin, Ennis it comprises of

- a) seven shared studios
- b) 2 independent units
- c) space for group work / exhibitions etc.

Each studio / workstation has access to power, broadband, water and bathrooms. There is free parking, 24 hour access to the studios and a communal kitchenette.

The studios are not suitable for heavy duty sculptural work or the creation of large scale artworks.

Clare County Council will insure the building for public liability but it is the artists' responsibility to insure their artworks / equipment etc.

The studios will be let initially until July 30th, 2018. Clare Arts Office and or their agents will work until this date with the successful artists / organisations to establish an artists' co-operative /society / collective with the intention that this new artists' body will take over the lease and the running of the studios.

The cost of a single studio is €150 per month inclusive of all utilities etc.

The cost of a shared studio is €120 per month inclusive of all utilities etc.

The license fee is due in advance monthly by standing order along with one months' deposit.

Applications are now being accepted for use of the workshop space as artist's studios / office space for immediate use. Arts organisations, cultural practitioners, artists, writers and multi-disciplinary practitioners are welcome to apply.

SELECTION OF ARTISTS

All applications will be placed before an independent selection panel who will make recommendations on the allocation of studios to artists. Final approval of allocations rests with Clare County Council. Canvassing will disqualify.

The panel relies solely on the information supplied in the applications received.

The panel reserves the right to shortlist artists on the basis of applications received and to call artists for interview where necessary.

The panel reserves the right to put a panel of artists in place if studios become available at short notice.

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF ACCEPTANCE

- Each artist will be issued with a legal license agreement for the studio.
- Each artist will be required to pay €150 / €130 (depending on the studio allocated) per month by direct debit / standing order for the studio inclusive of heat, light, etc.
- A deposit of €150 / €130 (depending on the studio allocated) will be required once the studio is awarded and this will be repaid to the artist once the studio has been vacated and is deemed to be left in good working order by the County Council.
- All artists agree to be bound by the operational rules and terms and conditions of the studios, which shall be provided to them when an offer of a studio is made.
