Application form to Extend the Appropriate Period of a Planning Permission
Section 42 & 42A of Planning & Development Act 2000 (as amended) & Articles 40 to 47 of Planning & Development Regulations 2001 (as amended)

Fee €62.00

In accordance with Section 42 and 42A of the Planning & Development Act 2000 (as amended) and Regulations made thereunder, a Planning Authority shall extend the appropriate period of a permission for a period not exceeding 5 years, provided that the application is made in accordance with regulations made under the Act and the Authority is satisfied in relation to the permission that:-

Either:-
(i) The development to which the permission relates was commenced before the expiration of the appropriate period sought to be extended and
(ii) Substantial works were carried out pursuant to the permission during the period, and
(iii) The development will be completed within a reasonable timeframe

Or
(i) there were considerations of a commercial, economic or technical nature beyond the control of the applicant which substantially militated against either the commencement of development or the carrying out of substantial works pursuant to the planning permission, and
(ii) that there have been no significant changes in the development objectives in the development plan or in regional development objectives in the regional planning guidelines for the area of the planning authority since the date of the permission such that the development would no longer be consistent with the proper planning and sustainable development of the area, and
(iii) that the development would not be inconsistent with the proper planning and sustainable development of the area having regard to any guidelines issued by the Minister under Section 28, notwithstanding that they were so issued after the date of the grant of permission in relation to which an application is made under this section, and
(iv) where the development has not commenced, that an environmental impact assessment or an appropriate assessment, or both of those assessments, if required was or were carried out before the permission was granted.
