13. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. J. Garrihy:-

“Request Clare County Council to provide a full list of Clare County Council led RRDF projects which have been successful in securing funding since the launch of the scheme in 2018. Please provide LEA location, a status and progress report, timeline for delivery if not completed, the value of the projects and funding sources. I also request a listing of projects led by the Council that were not successful to date and a status/progress report on all.”

14. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. J. Ryan:-

“Calling on FASD Ireland (Foetal Alcohol Spectrum Disorders) to give a workshop to Clare County Councillors with a view to calling on the Minister to recognise it as a disability.”

15. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. T. O’Callaghan:-

“To ask Clare County Council what measures are in place to ensure improving air quality in our urban villages and towns in our county.”

16. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllrs. J. Crowe, P. Daly agus J. Killeen:-

“We request Clare County Council to make urgent contact with the Department of Local Government regarding housing aid for Older People’s grant in connection with the exclusion of new fossil fuel boilers, oil or gas.”

17. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. J. Killeen:-

“In advance of the 2025 tourist season we call on Clare County Council to outline plans proposed or in place to increase transport connectivity designed to minimise traffic density difficulties while supporting our towns and villages.”

18. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. J. Crowe:-

“I call on Clare County Council to arrange an urgent meeting of the Gardaí and TII in connection with the serious problem of speeding of cars in our urban and rural roads of not alone Co. Clare but throughout Ireland.”

19. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. R. McInerney:-

“That Clare County Council undertake a comprehensive survey of Croí Cónaithe Affordable Housing Schemes currently being implemented by Local Authorities across the country. The purpose of this survey is to gather insights, identify best practices, and compile a detailed report that will inform the development and implementation of similar schemes within Clare County Council’s jurisdiction.

This report should address key elements such as eligibility criteria, funding structures, administrative processes, and any identified challenges or successes, ensuring that Clare County Council can adopt a strategic and effective approach to affordable housing provision.”

20. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllrs. P. Murphy, C. Ryan, P. Burke, S. Talty, T. Guilfoyle:-

“That Clare County Council oppose the recent decision by the GAA, whereby children under the age of sixteen will be charged a fee to gain admittance to GAA matches, and that we call on the GAA to reverse this decision as a matter of urgency. It is also proposed that this Notice of Motion be circulated to all Local Authorities across the country.”

21. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. C. Colleran Molloy:-

“That Clare County Council:

(1) provide the criteria utilised for its purchase of residential developments from private developers for social housing (which were granted planning permission as non-social housing development and without undertaking the Part 8 process);

(2) Since 2020, please list the developments purchased from private developers as described in part (1) above by Clare County Council; their geographic location, number of units within each development; and the per unit cost for each such residence;

(3) Where such purchases as detailed in part (2) above have occurred, what is the policy regarding additional/further purchases of private developments for social housing within the same localities?”

22. Curtha faoi bhráid na Comhairle ag Cllr. R. Hartigan:-

“To ask if the implementation of a Household Waste Collection Subsidy Scheme (Bin Waiver) for pensioners as well as those in receipt of certain social welfare payments such as the Disability Allowance, similar to the one in place in Limerick and other counties, would be considered by Clare County Council.”
